PROFESSIONAL CONCERNS DOMINATE YOUR LIFE

Mars in 10th or conjunct Midheaven

Professionally you are motivated by your desire to be top dog - calculatingly competitive. Angelina you are aggressive in pursuing your ambition to be first, but exercise discipline and self-control at the same time. The qualities that a politician or general requires, you don't often risk your ambition through being overly rash. You want to be recognised and may enter the military, police or government to do this.

From an early age you have had leadership thrust upon you because people recognise your initiative and leadership skills. The down side of this is that you are also picked on. Therefore, you do well in any martial occupation, or one that involves adventure and initiative, or in banking and insurances, etc. You are either recognised for your good deeds or your notoriety. Because you take the initiative you are best in a profession where you are entrepreneur, or trouble shooter - competitive sportsman (if other factors support that).

Trouble follows you, often for no reason of your own. Sometimes you just can't stop having a go at those in authority. Therefore, you fight with your bosses as well as the authorities. Then rather than have a reputation as a leader you are seen as a dissident and trouble maker. Learn to take orders without fighting - if you can, and channel that energy of yours into something positive.
