

ANGELINA JOLIE'S EMOTION AND FEELING

Described here is your emotional state. How you instinctively respond to life - your habits. Also this section shows what you need to feel secure and safe. In psychological terms it describes your ego.

Moon in Virgo

You Angelina are fastidious and exacting, others may find you rather cold. Angelina you feel secure when your surroundings are tidy. Emotionally, you are meticulous and find security through being orderly and perfect. At this you are bound to fail, you need to accept that you are perfect as you are. Life has conditioned you to serve and to help in a practical way. Therefore, emotionally you are suited to being an assistant rather than being a star. It is through exercising your critique skills and eye for detail that you will find a safe place for yourself. You become super critical when you feel insecure. Taking care of the small jobs that help make up the larger picture makes you feel you belong. Because of this you can become lost in unnecessary emotional detail - paralysis by analysis. Therefore, you need to learn discrimination. You feel secure when you help and serve people, through personally intervening in other peoples' lives. Generally you are a helpful person willing to do chores, etc. You are best where method and routine are required, making you an excellent researcher, analyst or technician.

Because you are emotionally addicted to habit and routine, you are predictable, becoming upset if they are disrupted. You need people and your family to do things on time and have a routine. If they do not, you will force one on them or get sick. This is seen in your diet and daily routine. Health and diet are important to you. Also you may be skilled with craft and small animals. Your emotional security is increased by doing an apprenticeship or a period of training of some kind. Work makes you feel safe. Because you are such a natural perfectionist, it is important for you to be aware that others do not have your standards of perfection and hygiene.

The emotions and feelings just described are best seen in the way you Angelina relate to others and eventually to your marriage partner. You Angelina show a natural talent in public relations, counseling and match making. Emotionally you need to be liked and loved and you hate to be disliked. Therefore, Angelina you respond in a charming way so mostly you are seen as likeable and agreeable, needing things in your relationships with others to be as smooth and harmonious as possible. You have natural social skills, most people like you and find you easy. This tendency to please often leads you to compromise your feelings, your values and ideals when relating to others. You need learn to be assertive. Because of the nice and compromising way you respond to life you have hidden anger. Therefore it would be helpful for you to learn to express your emotional needs when dealing with others, because you often ignore your own feelings and emotional needs.

A long-term relationship is important for your emotional well being, instinctively you seek these, which may mean that you can't bear to be alone. Most things will be done with a companion. Consequently you may have married young for emotional security and may marry a parental figure. You are most at home when interacting with others and partners. Wanting your relationships to be as pleasant and harmonious as possible, you find it difficult to tolerate ugliness and untidiness in others preferring beautiful people as companions. Things of beauty are important to you it is necessary that you wear beautiful clothes and look good.

EMOTIONAL TALENTS AND OBSTACLES

What helps or hinders your security and your expression of feeling is shown here. This increases the complexity of your emotional nature, explains the contradictions which occur in your character and your relationships. This section alters and adds to what has already been said.

OBSTACLE: Conversation and learning are inhibited because of difficulties with expressing feeling. You feel when you should be thinking or think when you should be feeling. Therefore, you do not get your message across so you worry and become emotionally frustrated. You feel people do not listen to you or are too critical of ideas so you hide what you think and feel. Your partner must take the time to listen to you.

You need to learn how to express your feelings appropriately and how to think when you are being swamped by emotions. At work you may be shy or sensitive about speaking out so remains quiet and do not get the help you need. Learn to speak up.

OBSTACLE: Because you feel unloved or unappreciated and want to be liked, you try too hard to please. Allowing other people to influence your decisions. This causes tension, and you attach yourself to the wrong people and have difficulties with friends. Therefore, you have difficulties being satisfied and content, and with your relationships, having your parents interfering in your love life. This lack of satisfaction may lead to a sweet tooth. You are often in conflict not knowing who to please, yourself or others? Friendships are difficult because your values clash, therefore you do not connect with the right people. You become too sentimental and nice then you compromise yourself. Learn to value yourself and defend what you love.
