

ANGELINA JOLIE'S INTELLECTUAL ABILITY

MAJOR INFLUENCES UPON THINKING AND COMMUNICATION SKILLS

What happened in your early school years and in your daily life, that changes and adapts your attitudes to learning and your conversation is shown here.

Mercury in Sagittarius

Your intellect is further controlled by your desire to learn, travel and explore the world. You were born a student. You are good with foreign languages and maybe geography. As a child you were loud and noisy, with much to say about everything. Now as an adult, you become an explorer, learned, righteous and display your discoveries to the world. Wanting to learn, you are enthusiastic and optimistic mentally. You have a positive attitude about learning and are keen to explore and learn as much as you can. A natural student you are very clever, wise and fun. Although you may not be good at math, it's because you jump to conclusions and your concentration wanders. You are quite philosophical and religious in your ideas - sometimes self-righteous. A bit of a story teller sometimes you exaggerate the truth. You will need a tertiary education.

Mercury in 11th

Your intellect is further controlled by your desire for freedom and independence. You may be "hyper-active"; you are very intelligent and border on being a genius. You learn fast, and become bored quickly. Therefore, you will need to keep occupied with new ideas. Often your mind works faster than your mouth so you have problems getting words out, you will need to learn mental discipline. In learning you have special needs - so chose the right institution. The right school was one where you could progress at your pace, if not you became disruptive in class.

You show an interest in electronics, computers, new age science and mathematics, just to mention a few. Encourage and train this wonderful mind. People need to talk to you like a friend not a subordinate. Wild and wacky ideas - inventor. Often you get too mentally active and need grounding through physical exercise or natural food, no sugar. Otherwise you cannot sleep.

TALENTS AND OBSTACLES IN COMMUNICATION AND LEARNING

Angelina your communications skills and challenges that you face in your education are shown here. In places they support each other and in others they contradict each other. The degree of this indicates how complex learning and communicating is for you. Read on and evaluate how this section works for you.

TALENT: A natural student you have an expansive mind and like to learn everything, you are exceptionally curious. A teacher and a great story teller you may eventually write books. The arts, religion, philosophy and other cultures are good educational choices. Mentally confident you should be good at exams.

TALENT: Beautiful voice a singer or musician you are a pleasure to listen to.. You are gifted scholastically in the arts and with your voice. You like to learn about things of beauty and music. Should be a good dancer.

TALENT: Your intellect and imagination combine to give you an inspired and creative mind. You are a talented musician with an excellent ear for music. A good singing voice. You are a good story teller and an inspired talker. Painting, poetry, dance and music are suitable subjects for learning. You talk about these subjects a lot. Medicine and healing are other subjects that you may show an interest and talent in. Photographer or film maker if other factors concur.

*****ATTENTION*****

Intellectually blocked, you hold back your thoughts and feelings because you feel that you won't be believed. Often you were not given credit for what you had done by your teachers. Therefore, you became resentful, secretive and sly. You need to learn how to communicate and to express your feelings otherwise you will always feel unheard and not learn properly. You have great insight and ways of knowing things that you can't explain. Take the time to seriously consider what you are seeing. You probably are interested in reading monster stories and as an adolescent horror movies were fascinating.

*****

OBSTACLE: Difficulties in learning and communicating, as feeling and emotion keep interfering with rational thought. You are thinking when you should be feeling so you come across all wrong and no one listens. You need to learn how to express your feelings appropriately and how to think when you are being swamped by emotions. When learning you may be shy or sensitive about speaking out so remain quiet and don't get the attention you need. Speak up.

COMMUNICATION SUMMARY

Mercury has more than five aspects

Highly stimulated mind that needs developing. Education and the maturing of your intellect is a complex aspect of your personality. You have many intellectual interests and they are not all the same. It will take time for you to find out what is suitable. Some of your interests will only be a passing fancy while others long term. Nothing is straight forward for you where learning and communication is concerned - there are many factors to consider. The best approach was for you to develop a broad educational base. Then you could concentrate in what really holds your interest. Your educational needs and the development of your learning and communicating skills dominate your character.

Mercury has mostly helpful aspects

Intellectually gifted, you are good learner and conversationalist. Learning comes easily to you and teachers like you, especially because you are curious and interested in how things work. You express yourself well with words - are good with languages and drawing. Angelina you liked school, the only problem is that it was easy for you and you didn't perform to your full potential.

-ooOoo-